From Rauwitz in Great Poland, Jan. 6.

Three days ago, the pretended new King Stanislaus came to Visit the King of Sweden who has his Head Quarters here; and after a private Conference with his Majesty, he went hence to Coningsberg whither his Wife retir'd some Time ago, when King Augustus of Poland came last to Warsaw. 'Tis reported he will not return till the middle of February. The Nobility of Poland do not seem much dispos'd yet to confirm his Election; and 'tis talk'd that the Palatinats of Posenania, Caliz, and some others having sent to the Cardinal Primate to desire him to Summons the Nobility of Great Poland to meet at Posenania, to acknowledge King Stanislaus, his Eminency return'd Answer, that he would have no Hand in such a Business, and that he much rather wish'd King Stanislaus would renounce his Pretensions to the Crown, with the Consent of the King of Sweden. Monsieur de Slippenbach, Lieutenant General of the King of Prussia's Troops, arriv'd here from Berlin the 2d of this Month; he has not yet taken upon him any publick Character; and the Pretext of his coming is, only to pay a Visit to his Swedish Majesty whom he formerly serv'd. But 'tis rumour'd the Ministers of England and Holland, will likewise come hither shortly, to sollicite anew his Swedish Majesty to make Peace with the King and Republick of Poland; and that then General Slippenbach will take upon him the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Prussia, and joyn his Solicitations with those of the other Ministers we have mention'd; 'tis presum'd he will also remonstrate to the King of Sweden the Reasons that mov'd his Master the King of Prussia, to take Dantzick into his Protection, by a Treaty lately concluded between his said Majesty and that City, and to refuse Passage through his Territories to 4 Regiments of Swedish Dragoons, viz. those of Steinbock, Meyerfeld, Taub, and Dukeris, who had Quarters assign'd them in the Polish Prussia. Count Horn coming hither a few days ago from Dresden, with a full Power from King Augustus of Poland to offer a Cartel or Exchange of Prisoners to the Swedish Ministers, that Cartel is accepted and agreed to on the part of his Swedish Majesty; and Count Horn would have set out for Dresden with it before now, had he not suddenly fallen ill of a Distemper, that confines him to his Bed.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 20.

Warsaw, Jan. 2. The little Diets of the Palatinats of Posenania, Caliz, and some others in Great Poland, are to meet the 12th of this Month. 'Tis said they are dispos'd to acknowledge the new King Stanislaus, and that they are desirous the Cardinal Primate should by his Universalia call an Assembly of the Nobility to meet at Posenania, to confirm the Election of the said new King; but 'tis advis'd from Dantzick, that his Eminency is very cautious of meddling in this Affair, and has declar'd he had much rather the new King would divest himself of his Royalty: And we are assur'd the Marshal of the Confederacy of Great Poland is of the same Judgment. The Swedes continue to exact heavy Contributions, without any Exception or Distinction, as well in Great Poland, as in the Bishoprick of Warmia, where they have burnt some Houses. The Deputies of the Congress at Koscian have waited on the King of Sweden, and have us'd pressing Solicitations that Great Poland may be exempt from paying Contributions, and that he would withdraw his Troops out of that Province. 'Tis reported his Swedish Majesty demands, that all the Nobility of Great Poland mount on Horseback and assist him against the Saxons. We hear nothing at present of the Enlargement of the Princes James and Constantine Sobieski from their Confinement at Leipzick; and therefore suppose that Affair is not settled yet.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 23.

Dresden, Jan. 14. The Advices from Poland tell us, that the Cardinal Primate has at length resolv'd to renounce all publick Business, and to repair to Rome. The new King Stanislaus has forbidden the great Treasurer of Poland to pay King Augustus any Part of his Revenues; and has signify'd to the Army of the Crown, that they must obey his Orders only: But we do not learn this has had any Effect.

From the Amsterdam Courant, &c. dated Jan. 24.

Vienna, Jan. 10. The 2 Regiments of Cuirassiers of Hanover and Gronsfeld, are coming from Bavaria, to reinforce General Heister's Army in Hungary. That General has put strong Garrisons into Freystatel and the Fort of Forgats, which the Malecontents abandon'd since their Defeat at Tyrnau. The Inhabitants of the County of Neutra and of the Great Island of Schut, have accepted the Amnesty offer'd in the Emperor's Name by General Heister, and have furnish'd him with 80 Waggons, to carry the Bridge of Boats which was sent to him from hence. One of our Captains, nam'd Vynhard, was the Person who (after having kill'd the Ensign of Prince Ragotski's Guards, took Prisoner Monsieur de Verville the French Envoy; the Court is not determin'd yet whether to proceed against that Envoy as a Prisoner of War or a Criminal. They write from Buda, that the Inhabitants of the Villages thereabouts have re-victuall'd Pest; and that some Hungarian Malecontents who had taken Arms and were going to joyn Prince Ragotski, hearing of his Defeat chang'd their Resolution and return'd to their Homes. Some private Letters from Transilvania tell us, that Lieutenant Weismuler, being out upon a Party met with 3000 Malecontents, and charg'd and defeated them killing 300 of them. 'Tis reported the Duke of Marlborough will be presented with some Imperial Fief, to entitle him to a Seat in the College of Princes of the Empire.

Landau, Jan. 12. A considerable Number of Workmen are employ'd continually in repairing the Fortifications of this Place that were shatter'd in the last Siege, and to level all the Works that were cast up by the Besiegers; the Trenches are already fill'd up, and the Ditch is cleans'd. Men are working to fortify Lauterbourg with all Diligence.

Frankfort

Frankfort, Jan. 14. There have been brought into the Storehouse which the Emperor's Commissaries have in this Town some of the Pontons made of Leather, which were taken last Summer from the French and Bavarians in the Battle of Hochster; and 'tis design'd several more shall be made here in the same Manner, for next Summer's Service. The Recruits and New Levies for the Emperor and for several Princes of the Empire, are continued in several Parts with good Success. Prince Lewis of Baden, who is at Affchaffembourg, has held several Conferences with General Officers, touching the Means of being beforehand with the Enemy upon the Upper Rhine next Campaign, of repairing the Fortifications of Landau, and providing it with Plenty of all things necessary; and the Count de Frise, who is Governour of it, is since come hither, to endeavour to take up a Sum of Money for that purpose. The last Letters from Strasburg advise, that the French are working diligently to build a new Fort and make some Intrenchments, for the better Defence of the weakest side of that Place.

The fam'd Beautifying Secret of 20 Years Experience, for making the Face and Skin surprizingly white, soft and smooth, taking away Freckles, Wrinkles, marks of the Small Pox, Spots, Pimples, Redness, Tanning, Morpew, Scurf, &c. rendering those that have used it even the Wonder of the World for the exquisite Beauty and Fairness it hath given them, no Cosmetick, Wash, Water, Powder, &c. being ever known to come near it, it maketh the Breath sweet, Teeth white and fast, cures the Scurvy in the Gums, and Tooth-ach, strengthens the Sight, comforts the Brain, eases Pains in the Ears, helps Deafness, loss of Memory, heals chop'd Lips and Hands, &c. fevident Signs of its being free from Mercury, which is known to blacken and rot the Teeth and Gums, spoil the Sight, &c.) it makes the Hair grow thick, prevents its shedding, and (which is admirable) changes red Hair (in time) into a light brown, and yet is as clear and harmless as fair Water, of a pleasing Scent, being no deceit but a real Beautifier, as attested under the Hands of divers Persons of Note. To be had only of Mr. Varenne, Bookseller, at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand. Price Five Shillings the Bottle, with Directions.

The true Antivenereal Antidote, which never fails Curing the most Virulent Clap, or Running of the Reins, tho' attended with Heat or Scalding of Urine, Pain, Cordee, and worst of Symptoms possible, in a few days time, with the greatest Ease, Safety and Privacy, without the least Confinement, Suspicion, or Use of any other Medicine; It has cured hundreds and never known to fail, many to Admiration in 3 or 4 days time, and that not by stopping the Running, and throwing it into the Blood, as the practice of many is, to the frequent ruin of the Patient, but by destroying and eradicating the Malignity of the Disease, carrying it effectually away both by Stool and Urine, so as that the Patient shall never relapse; It being really the greatest Medicine in the World to expel the Venereal Poyson, let it lurk never so latent or hidden in the Body, which the Author would not assert, unless true, to gain a thousand times more than 'tis possible by its Sale.

If it be taken soon after had to do, tho' with the most infected Person; it certainly prevents the Distemper, and is the properest Medicine to carry off the Relicks of ill cured Poxes and Claps, tho' of 10, 15 or 20 Years standing; frees the Head of all disorder and pain, noise or tingling in the Ears, pain about the Nose, cross the Eye-brows, &c. either from the Disease or Mercury, also for old Gleet or Weeping, whether Venereal, or by Weakness or Overstraining, it proves the noblest Balsamick, strengthening Remedy, as likewise for all curable Defects of the Seminal Vessels and Genital parts which hinder Procreation; &c. in either Sex. To be had (seal'd up with printed Directions) in Alia-street in Goodman's-fields near White-Chappel, a Golden Half Moon being over the Door, Price 6 s. the Tin pot, which is sufficient in most Cases to perfect the Cure.

Since so many Upstarts do daily publish one thing or other to counterfeit the Original Strops for setting Razors, Pen-knives, Lancets, &c. upon, and pretend them to be most excellent, the first Author of the said Strops doth hereby signify, that all such sorts of things are only made in imitation of the true ones, which are permitted to be sold by no one but Mr. Shipton at John's Coffee-house in Swithin's-Alley near the Royal Exchange, as hath been often mention'd in the Gazette, to prevent Peoples being further impos'd upon, price 1 s. each, with Directions neatly fix'd upon the back of each Board to distinguish them from others.

PROPOSALS for the Printing a second Edition of Mr. CLARK's Annotations on the Holy Bible, with Parallel Scriptures and References; Wherein also the whole Text is inserted, together with the Harmony of the Gospels, a Reduction of the Jewish Weights, Coins and Measures, to our English Standard; and a Table of the Promises in Scripture. To which in this Edition are added, some Thousands of Parallel Scriptures, and the whole exactly corrected by the Author some time before his Death: With many other Improvements too large to mention. The excessive Dearness of Paper does oblige the Undertakers to Print it by way of Subscription, which they are not willing to proceed in, unless encouraged by a competent Number of Subscribers, which they promise themselves from the General Acceptance and Great Usefulness of this Work.

It is Proposed, That the said Book shall be Printed with a new Letter on very good Paper. Twenty five Shillings to be paid for a single Book in Quires; 10 s. in hand, and 15 s. on the Delivery, with the usual Allowance of a Seventh Gratis. Proposals with a Specimen may be had of the Undertakers, Jonat. Robinson, J. Sprint, B. Aylmer, and J. Lawrence, Booksellers in London, where the Proposals at large may be had, and likewise of most Booksellers in England, &c.
